

Among the Churches

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. J. F. Sage, Pastor.

Services were well attended Sunday all day. The pastor occupied the pulpit at both services, delivering a sermon at 11 A. M. that will be remembered. The choir was well represented. The church feels proud to have them out and is glad to have our contralto, Mrs. Sayde Wyatt present as well as Miss "Violin." Mr. Wyatt has returned home safely from overseas and Ward Chapel feels proud of him. Collections were splendid all day Sunday. An error to be corrected in last week's issue, the collection was $36.43 instead of $64.23. There was one addition. Promptly at 3 P. M. the pastor opened a good service from Isaiah 49:16. A splendid lesson to all. We have on the sick list, Mr. Jackson and Mrs. Skinner. We pray for them a speedy recovery. Sunday afternoon Rev. J. F. Sage and a few of his willing members went to Argentine to Quarterly Meeting. Rev. Chandler preached an excellent sermon and the collections were good. The public is invited to attend the concert given by the Imperial Sacred Concert Co. given at this church. All the music used will be by colored writers. Next Sunday will be Women's Day and we will be pleased to make it a success. The Sunday School is expecting to have a picnic Thursday. Our Christian Endeavor is doing a great work and too much praise cannot be given Mr. Davis for his faithfulness towards the work. The church should be proud of such a model Christian young man. "I am the Door Enter by Me, and You Shall be Saved."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The services for the month of July have been well attended. Our picnic was the best attended and the most enjoyed ever had. The Aid Society is putting on the finishing touch of the Auditorium. The pastor is entering his fourth year's service with the church on an increase of salary. The Kansas City church is to entertain the Christian State Missionary Convention August 5-10. A more full and official statement will be made next week. In the death of Mother Richardson the church lost out of the oldest and faithful members. Rev. Carter H. White and Miss Artie M. Hayes; Mr. Edward Buckner and Miss Sarah Chinn were happily married at the parsonage. Mrs. R. P. Jackson has returned from a visit in Nebraska. Mrs. D. M. West, who has been suffering for sometime with a fractured limb, is able to be about on crutches. Mrs. Effie Watkins is attending the State Grand Lodge in St. Louis. Miss Eladale Lewis is visiting relatives in Topeka, Kans. Mrs. Wm. Alphin addressed the Y. W. C. A. on the Kansas side last Sunday. Next Sunday at 11 A. M. the Minister will discuss "Sprinkling from Scriptural and Historical Viewpoints." At 3 P. M. "The Obedience to the Christ and Common Sense."

ALLEN CHAPEL.

Women's Day services brought out a large number of worshippers both morning and evening. The women of the church took an active part. A women's chorus sang and Miss Lula May Butler, the famous gospel singer, was soloist. It was a rare treat to hear Miss Butler and everyone was delighted with her singing. Dr. Wm. H. Thomas, the minister, delivered an ideal sermon chosen from the 1:16 of Romans, subject "The Remedy." There was one addition. The evening services on the lawn opposite the church are popular and inspiring. No fans are needed. Everyone enjoyed hearing the magnificent sermon Dr. Thomas delivered at this service on "The Most Popular Sin in the World"—Ingratitude, having taken his text from Luke 17:17. The women acted as ushers and the amount of money they raised looks as if the mortgage is really to be burned. Strangers and visitors were heartily welcome to all our church services and extend to you our church fellowship.

BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

5th and Lydia.

Rev. Geo. W. Devlin, Pastor.

The Memorial services held for Clarence Kline last Sunday at 1:30 P. M. was largely attended and the sermon was very impressive. The program opened by singing "I'm Nearer My Home." Prayer by Brother R. Williams; song, "Yield not to Temptation," paper, "Sin" Sister M. Devlin; song, "God will take care of you," paper, "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother," by Supt. Jennetta E. Johnson; song, "My Wonderful Day," Lecture, "Obedience," Brother Wm. Mack; Children Obey Your Parents by Brother James Stokes; "Love your Home and Your Parents," Sister Carrie Johnson; "Children Do not Stray from the Way your Parents Have raised you," James Terrell; "Children Obey your Mother and Father," Sister Mattie Quinn; "Parents are Not Always to Blame if a child goes astray from its training," Sister Jennetta Johnson; "Parents Cannot help the Wrong of their child if it is Hereditary," Brother Walter Countee. Sermon by the pastor, Rev. Geo. W. Devlin, subject "Pick the Bean from Thine Own Eye." Before Thou see the mote in thy Brother's eye. Rev. Tillman preached a powerful sermon Sunday night. The Imperial Jubilee Sacred Concert given at the Bethel church Saturday by Professor Walter Countee is worthy of our praise. Sallie White, of Utica, Mo., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jeanetta Johnson and family returned to her home Monday evening.

EBENEZER CHURCH.

After the usual services at Ebenezer Sunday morning the funeral of Bennora Rather, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rather, was held. The Rev. W. T. Osborne officiating. Condolence from Class No. 14 of which brother Rather is leader and from her school mates were read. Each pictured Bennora as a beautiful character, kind and loved by all who knew her, a favorite both at school and at home and would be greatly missed. Though young she had always been a great little Christian worker in the church and sang in Bethel choir. She is not dead but asleep. The pastor and members deeply sympathize with the bereaved family in this their saddest hour. Following the funeral of Bennora was that of Charles J. Robinson, nephew of Mrs. Mary Jones. The Masons and Odd Fellows were in charge. Both spoke of Mr. Robinson as being a splendid young man, devoted both to his home and to his lodges. On Tuesday morning the funeral of Mrs. Maggie Grant, mother of Mrs. Ethel Kemp, was held at Ebenezer, Rev. W. T. Osborne officiating. Mrs. Grant was one of the Pioneer settlers of Kansas City. She belonged to every department of Masonry and to the S. M. T's. all of whom turned out and paid glowing tributes to her sacred memory. They spoke of her as being a good woman always jolly and pleasant and ever ready to do her part in the orders. Although of a family possessing very large property holdings Mrs. Grant was a very plain simple woman and preferred a quiet, unassuming life to display. She gave largely to those who needed her assistance. Ebenezer was filled with men and women from every walk of life, who knew and loved Mrs. Grant because of her broad, liberal and kind disposition. The Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church Aid, Ebenezer Improvement Board and Class No. 5 had beautiful condolences of comfort to the bereaved family. The casket and altar were covered with beautiful floral designs and sprays which showed the vast numbers of friends in love and sympathy. The pastor and members of Ebenezer extend sympathy to the bereaved family, especially to the daughter, Ethel, who is Ebenezer's baby, having joined on her own accord years ago when Ebenezer was on Holmes Street, a little girl. She has never ceased to be active and always anxious about the care and comfort of her pastor and family. In Ebenezer, Ethel will always find a love and comfort. Class No. 5, Brother Givens, leader is hanner. Brother Henry Clatter wears the Gold Medal for the Gleaner Class this quarter. Ebenezer and Ward Chapel will have a big picnic at Himes Park August 4th. Base ball, big speaking and all kinds of amusements.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.

Services were well attended at St. John Sunday. The collection and reports of money from the different departments of the church were good. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Bell, preached two excellent sermons at the morning and evening services. Mrs. Mary Brooks, who has been quite ill, was able to be at church Sunday. Miss Finney was called out of the city on account of the death of her sister. Mrs. Rosa Simmons of Kansas City, Kans., will leave Wednesday night for Chicago, where she will visit with relatives and friends about 3 weeks. Rev. and Mrs. Bell attended the quarterly meeting at Argentine, Kansas, Sunday, Rev. Everett, pastor. They report having spent a very pleasant time. Mrs. Browning of 1017 West Twentieth street, who has been quite ill, is able to be out again. Services at the usual hour. You are welcome. Come and bring a friend.

GALILEE BAPTIST CHURCH.

19th and Highland.
At 11:30 a. m. Rev. J. A. Williams preached a good sermon to a very good crowd. Pastor William Fennell at 3:30 p. m. returned to Quindaro, where he was engaged in a meeting and preached a great sermon; subject, "A Wayside Beggar." At 8:40 p. m., subject, "This Do in Remembrance of Me." The people of this mission are great workers for the Lord. At 9 p. m. Palmer Harris preached for us at the request of our pastor.

GREENWOOD BAPTIST CHURCH.

Our services were well attended Sunday. At 9:30, Sunday School. At 11 a. m., our pastor preached an inspiring sermon. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. At 8 p. m., Rev. Luther preached. The chorus rendered beautiful music, under the direction of Mrs. Fulbright. The Mission Circle met at the home of Mrs. Zulla White. Refreshments were served. They will entertain at the home of Mrs. Pearl Lock Saturday evening. Mrs. Merle is on the sick list.

TWIN CITY BAPTIST YOUNG MINISTERS' ALLIANCE.

The Alliance met and devoted 45 minutes Monday evening, July 21st, to devotional services and transacting business, after which Rev. J. S. Williams ascended the rostrum, accompanied by Rev. O. T. Reed and Rev. B. C. Cosby. Scripture reading by Rev. Reed; prayer by Rev. B. C. Cosby; Rev. Williams' text taken from Revelations, 5:2, subject, "Who Is Worthy?" Rev. Williams is a very spiritual speaker. All present were made to rejoice. The Bible Class is progressing very nicely with Rev. J. C. Patten as their instructor. The Alliance was indeed glad to have as visitor Mrs. Geo. W. Coleman of Bismarck, N. D. She informs them that ministers are very much needed in her state. Don't miss the musical program Monday night, July 28th, at Seventeenth and Tracy. Rev. S. C. Doyle, pastor.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Sunday was a day of jubilee in Bethel. The Sunday School was largely attended and a great time was had in the discussion of the lesson and the many selections that were sung by the school gave life to the occasion. Bishop Parks and his family were invited by invitation of Pastor Dawson, came over Sunday morning and addressed the school to the delight of all. Bishop preached at the morning service to a large and appreciative audience. Two persons were happily converted and three united with the church.

The New Era Lodge, No. 40, K. of P., accompanied by Troop B and the 2d Regiment Band, turned out in a body at Bethel at 3 o'clock and participated in the excellent program that was carried out. At this service the mortgage that was held by this lodge for the past five and a half years was burned in the presence of a large congregation. Dr. D. W. Boatner and Rev. Campbell worshipped with us and added much to the service. Rev. W. M. Alfin represented the Ministers' Alliance. An offering of $184.25 was taken of which the generous-hearted K. of P. brothers shared much, too, much praise cannot be given to those brave boys for the excellent support they have given Bethel this year. Pastor Dawson wishes to thank the members and friends for their unstinted support in carrying out this program. Bethel is now free from debt and is the home of visitors and strangers. Come and fill your places.

BLUE VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH.
Our services were fairly attended both morning and evening. At 11 o'clock sermon by Rev. Wallington. At night sermon by Rev. China. Both of the sermons were very good and interesting. All who heard them were made to rejoice. Our B. Y. P. U. meets every Sunday evening at 6:30. We are progressing and getting along nicely. Mrs. Jacobs is on the sick list. We hope she will recover soon and be able to come out to church again.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH.

1700 Tracy Avenue.

Rev. S. C. Doyle, Pastor.

Sunday School was excellent in attendance. Every teacher was at his post and the lessons well taught. We invite all visiting children to enjoy the big picnic August 1st at 1822 Euclid, Mrs. Lay's residence. Trucks will leave the church at 2 p. m. At 11 a. m. our beloved pastor occupied the pulpit and brought to us a message from the Lord, from Hebrews 12:1. A most wonderful and inspiring sermon was preached. Rev. Doyle is preaching from the fullness of his heart and many are receiving the invitations to accept Christ. There were eleven additions to the church during the day, one for baptism. In the evening at 8:30 o'clock our pastor again preached another grand and glorious sermon from Matthew 28:18. The service was a great success. The City Mission met in the afternoon. Many were present. All Clubs are running close races to go over the top August 31st. Mission Circle meets every Thursday with very interesting services. They expect to make a big success at their bazaar July 1st. Sister Oliver is on the sick list this week. We earnestly pray a speedy recovery. We cordially invite all strangers to this church. We make you welcome.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Our flock was without a shepherd last Sunday on account of the pastor, Dr. Bacote, attending the State Convention which was in session at St. Louis, last week. In the morning services Rev. Minor preached. In the evening services, Rev. Gols, a young minister, preached also Rev. Reed. During the day there were five additions to the church. The B. Y. P. U. coral class, under the direction of Mrs. Reeves, is improving rapidly. In the absence of Mrs. Bacote, Mrs. Reeves presided at the pipe organ in a very creditable manner. Prayer meeting begins at 8 p. m., during which the Community Chorus of seventy voices will furnish excellent vocal music.

VINE ST. BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended Sunday. There were three additions. Mr. Jas. Ford has returned from France. We were indeed glad to see him and welcome him to our city, our church and our homes and wish there were thousands more like him. Miss Bloomer Gilham was full of smiles all day because her mother, who has been visiting her daughter in Chicago has returned home and reports everything O. K. in Chicago. Mrs. Lucile Reynolds of 3240 Harrison St., is visiting friends in Columbia, Mo. We wish her a pleasant visit. Mr. and Mrs. Greegs visited the B. Y. P. U. We were indeed glad to see them and hope they will call again. B. Y. P. U. will have a grand program Sunday, July 27th at 5:30 p. m.

The funeral of Mr. Peter Finney was held Saturday from the residence, 2016 East Eleventh street, under the auspices of Mt. Oread Lodge, A. F. & A. M. Rev. William H. Thomas officiated.
